

ZONING REVIEW & PROPOSED OCP AMENDMENTS QUESTIONNAIRE LONG BEACH OPEN HOUSE

The ACRD is doing a complete review and update of the zoning bylaw for the entire regional district. Associated with this review are a number of amendments to the OCPs for all electoral areas. Please take a few minutes to answer the yes or no questions below. Additional space for more comments is on the backside. Your input is valuable to us!

	Yes	No
We have completed many changes to the keeping of animals section including the ability to have poultry on smaller lots and allowing bee keeping. Are you in favour of these changes?
If no, please explain:
Water zones have been created to help regulate development of docks and boathouses. Are you supportive of these zones?
If no, please explain:
The minimum lot size is 0.4 ha (with communal or community water, or sewer system, or both) and 1 ha (with on-site water and sewer) in areas designated as Residential in the South Long Beach OCP. Should the 0.4 ha minimum lot size be reduced to 0.24 ha in the OCP to match the Alberni Valley OCPs?
If no, please explain:
The zoning bylaw document has been re-formatted to be more user friendly. Do you find it easier to follow?
If no, please explain:
